Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

South Side flag presentation this evening.

The Grand to-night—"Pulse of New York."

The Union generals are at Steubenville to-day.

Yesterday afternoon there was a light frost, but no snow in Wheeling, the first of the season.

At the Y. M. C. A. rally yesterday afternoon, Dr. F. A. Remely, of Des Moines, Iowa, one of the visiting Bay-list ministers, delivered an address to men that was heard by a large congregation.

On Saturday morning at 9 o'clock occurred the death of Mrs. Frederick Hanke. The funeral takes place from her late residence, No. 56 Sixteenth street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. George Petticoat was greatly surprised by a number of his friends on the occasion of his birthday, who called at his home. Dancing and games were the principal amusements, and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Yesterday morning there occurred the death of the wife of Mr. John Mar-bach, at the residence of Mrs. Catharine Krebs, No. 3719 Chapline street, where the funeral takes place this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment at Wegee cemetery.

There was a disgraceful scene at the corner of Forty-eighth and Jacob streets Saturday evening. An old gentleman standing on the corner hawking for McKinley was assaulted by several rascals and knocked down, while he was not looking and beaten in the face.

Mr. Louis Socks, an employee at the Whitaker mill, met with a very painful accident Saturday. He was assisting a fellow workman to move a large roll, weighing eight or ten tons, when the rope on which the roll was suspended, broke, and the roll fell on his right foot, crushing it badly.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Miss Kate Hickman, of Middlebourne, is at the McLure.

Mr. W. R. Walker, of Sistersville, is putting up at the Howell.

Mr. John T. Hoskins, of Mannington, was in the city over night.

Mr. W. Mc. Snodgrass and wife, of New Martinsville, are in the city.

Miss Adie Atkinson, of Parkersburg, registered at the Stamm yesterday.

Several members of the "Pulse of New York" company are at the Howell.

The McLure register contains the name of John A. George, Parkersburg.

Lewis Jones and Richard Riley, two Patton hotelkeepers, were in the city yesterday.

Mr. A. C. Ruby was a visitor from Sistersville on yesterday's register at the Stamm.

Mrs. Zanna Frasher Gibson has returned home after several months' absence from the city.

Charles W. Johnson and P. W. Bartlett, of Mannington, were registered at the Windsor yesterday.

Mr. W. Chester McQuilken and wife, of Lisbon, O., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Craft, of the Island, for a few days, will leave for their home to-day.

To Print the Ballots.

The Ohio county ballot commissioners on Saturday awarded the contract for printing the social and sample ballots for the approaching election to the West Virginia Printing Company, it being the lowest bidder. Thirty-four thousand ballots are to be printed. The Sunday Register in noting the fact, says that seventeen reams of paper will be required to do the work. The fact is that the work will require thirty-five reams of paper. It is hardly probable that the Register company used the reporter's figures as a basis for its bid.

A LABOR QUARREL.

The Labor Tribune and President Tighe Have a Tilt.

TRADES AND LABOR ASSEMBLY

Holds a Special Meeting and Passes a Resolution Vindicating Its President of an Imputation Made by the Labor Paper.
One Member of the Investigating Committee Declines to Sign the Resolutions.
Politics Hurling the Assembly.

A special meeting of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly was held in its hall yesterday afternoon.
It was called by President M. F. Tighe, for the purpose of considering his request for a vindication of certain charges that were made in the last issue of the National Labor Tribune, of Pittsburgh. The meeting was pretty lively at times, and ending in the assembly passing a resolution, vindicating its president.

President Tighe read the article published in the labor paper and defended himself. He asserted that he had not, as charged, said that the Labor Tribune had been sold for gold to Mark Hanna and the Republican party, and requested the appointment of an investigating committee. The following committee was named: Messrs. W. H.
Riley, T. C. Darby, J. C. Collins, J.
Knock and Fred. Williams. The committee retired and after a session of thirty minutes, brought in the following report, which was signed by all of the members of the committee, with the exception of Mr. Williams, who declined to join in the report:

Resolved, That the article in the Labor Tribune in relation to Mr. Tighe, is unjust and unfair in every particular, and we, at a special meeting of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, most emphatically state that Mr.
Tighe did not at the meeting referred to, say that of which he is charged, and we most respectfully ask that the name of the author or the source through which the Tribune obtained the information which led to the insertion of the article referred to, be furnished this assembly.

The discussion was at times quite animated, and some temper was shown by those who joined in it. Some of the members of the assembly are fearful of the bad effects of this interjection of politics into an organization that has as one of its principles the eschewment of politics.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

Not Yet Known who the New Rector will Be—Satioli Believed to Know.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 18.—The programme of the meeting of the directors of the Catholic University indicates a brief and business-like session. The meeting will begin at 10:30 on Wednesday morning in the senate chamber of McMahon hall. The sessions will be private, and the present indications are that no authoritative information as to the choice of Bishop Keane's successor will be made public until after the meeting or until the pope has acted on the recommendation of the directors. The meeting of the archbishops begins on Thursday morning at the same place, but this has to do with the general affairs of the church and not with the university.
Although the meeting of the university directors is near at hand, there appears to be no crystallization on any name for the rectorship to succeed Bishop Keane. Objections are raised to most of the names already mentioned in the press, and in university circles it is felt that the conjecture has not come from those who will have a voice in the selection.

In some quarters connected with the university the impression prevails that Cardinal Satioli knows who the next rector will be and that the personal information he will be able to lay before the pope at an early day will be decisive in determining the rectorship. The expectation is that the next rector will not enter upon his duties before the Christmas holidays.

A HORRIBLE RECIAT.

Dead and Wounded Treated Alike During the Armenian Massacre.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Madji Rahsian is a Christian Turk who was one of the passengers on board the La Gascogne, which arrived to-day. He comes to this country on a business trip. Through an interpreter he told about the massacres of Armenians. He was in Constantinople during three days' massacre in August last.

During the three days 30,000 Armenians, he said, were slaughtered throughout the empire. Wagons filled with bodies were constantly passing through the streets in Constantinople. Cartload after cartload of these bodies were dumped into the sea. The sight was a sickening one and what added to its horror was the fact that in these wagons were piled the dead and dying and the feeble cries of the wounded for release could be heard from the carts, but the appeals were utterly unheeded. Whether killed or wounded, all were thrown into the sea. Mr. Rahsian says that the Europeans have not been molested up to date. He added that they are leaving Constantinople, fearing that they may be attacked.

If you want to be on the safe side, stick to the old reliable, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It is sold by dealers everywhere.

A Carol.

It has been charged that I was influenced by George Magers and Mike Stein to flop to the Democratic party, but no man can say that I have flopped when I have always upheld the Democratic party. If I have done anything in favor of the Republican party, I would like some-man to tell me something about it. I have many times marched in a Democratic parade, but have never marched in a Republican parade in any state.
